

CAMERA RECORD OF THE DAY'S NEWS

ONLY WRESTLING BEAR IN CAPTIVITY, so the Philadelphia Zoo boasts. He gives his keeper a real tussle every day. The photo shows him ready for action. (Int'l Newsreel.)

THREE OF SEASON'S BEST JOCKEYS—They make a fine showing at the Spring meet at Bowie, Md. Photograph made at track show, from left to right, Lang, one of the youngest as well as ablest boys on the track; Morris and Thomas. (Int'l Newsreel.)

THE DOLLY SISTERS—These stage favorites, after a triumphal vaudeville tour here, sailed for England on the S. S. Aquitania, accompanied by their mother, Nora Bayes, vaudeville headliner, was at pier to bid them bon voyage.

ALMOST HUMAN DANCING GIRL—Paris is agog over this novelty of wax figures. Annita Berber, Parisienne danseuse, posed for this statuette.

DR. ADOLPH LORENZ SAILS—He plans to return in September with his family and make his home in this country. The famous Viennese surgeon voiced his appreciation of the kindness received here and praised Mayor Hylan and Dr. Cope land for co-operation. (N. Y. Amer.)

ZIP! PRESIDENT HARDING threw the first ball that started the Yankee-Washington game in Washington. At his left Mrs. Harding and Secretary Hughes. (P. and A.)

JOHN SINGER SARGENT, artist, whose painting, "The Synagogue," aroused Boston Jews, refused to comment on arrival from Europe.

BERLIN'S MEAT PROBLEM is a difficult one. One can get an idea how difficult it is to buy meat in the public markets by looking over this line of waiting women and men. (Int'l Newsreel.)

ENGINEER CASEY JONES, JR., an embryo engineer of Chicago, carries his railroad with him. He is everything from section hand to president of the road. (Int'l Newsreel.)

READY TO MEET ALL COMERS—Sweet little Anna May Coleman, of Atlanta, Ga., is an expert in this Spring game of the boys—the game of migs. (Int'l Newsreel.)

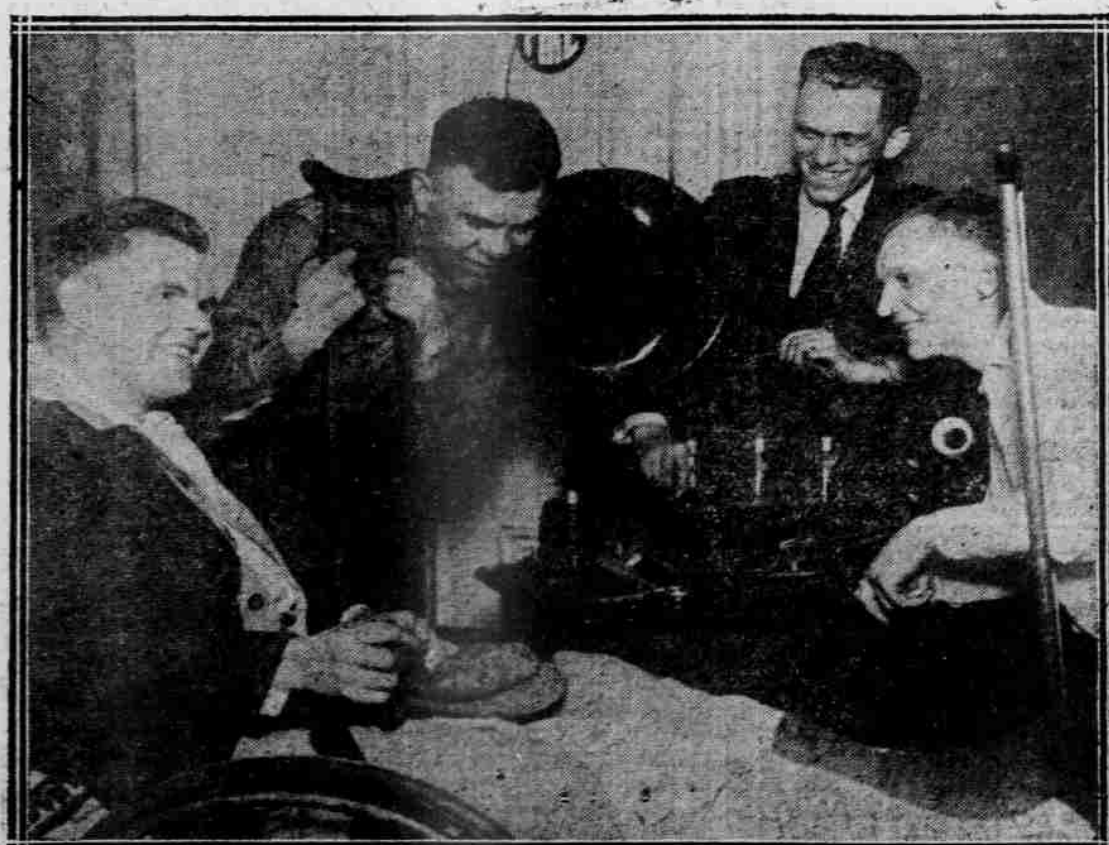

BATHING COSTUME, VELVET AND FUR—The old-fashioned one-piece bathing suit does not meet with the approval of the censors any more. Miss Josephine Hill, of the Christie Comedies, displays her beach costume for next Summer, velvet bodice with pantalettes to match, with trimmings of ermine fur. (Int'l Newsreel.)

ATTORNEY-GENERAL DAUGH- ERTY—Threatened with impeachment by members in the House of Representatives unless he takes steps to prosecute certain war contract cases that have long been pending.

MISS MAUD ROYDEN, Great Britain's first woman minister, expected to arrive for lecture tour in the United States this month. (U. W.)

RADIO CONCERTS FOR WOUNDED AND DISABLED SOLDIERS—Some one who has not "forgotten" the horrors of our boys "over there" staged a radio concert for the injured men in the Marine Hospital, Chicago. (Int'l Newsreel.)